

"The same way how, in 1995, the internet changed the way we communicate, Virtual Reality will change the way we produce and consume audiovisual content. The future is Now" Keram Malicki Sanchez, VRTO

Just announced!

The City of Toronto, with the Canadian Hispanic Congress and Hacklab are sponsoring a free preview of the Festival of International and Augmented Reality Stories (FIVARS)

This First Canadian Virtual Reality Festival of its kind will showcase a new wave of filmmakers and content producers who push the boundaries of virtual reality (VR) narrative, including several world premiers

Showcase at

Toronto Metro Hall Rotunda

at the corner of Wellington and John Streets – diagonal to TIFF Bell Lightbox
this Friday, September 18 from 1:00pm to 9:00pm

You will be able to enjoy a sampling of some of FIVARS full program.

The full FIVARS programme premiers 20 VR subjects from around the world

Tune out. Drop in. Virtual Reality is here.

FIVARS

FESTIVAL OF INTERNATIONAL VIRTUAL AND AUGMENTED REALITY STORIES

Special free public preview at Metro Hall Rotunda
September 18th - 1 - 9pm

UG3 Live (77 Peter Street, Toronto)
September 19-20, 2015 - 11am-7pm
Advance tickets $10, Door price $15
This is a 19+ event
FIVARS.net

Scan with your phone to buy tickets now

<http://fivars.net>

Sponsors

